Notice to Granite Cutters.
The undersigned, having been appointed by the Hon. Probate Court for the District of Washington, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of Elwyn M. Wheeler, late of the City of Barre, in said District, deceased, and all claims exhibited in or out of the District, hereby give notice that we will meet for the purposes aforesaid at the office of O. H. Reed, in the City of Barre, on the 15th day of July and 10th day of August next, from one o'clock P. M. until four o'clock P. GOWN GOSSIP.

All the jackets are elaborate in design and are loaded with trimming.

Many of the new full skirts are being made to open over a flounced panel of lace or muslin.

A quaint fashion which is being attempted is that of little mantles of the gown material to wear with street and carriage dresses.

Many of the new skirts are very long all around, lying in billows about the feet. The width of most of them is amazing, six yards around the hem being nothing unusual.

The full skirts have necessitated a return to short jackets and wraps, although the vogue of the long coat has not entirely disappeared. Most of the season's covers are short, however.

One sees fewer models in straight, full skirts, the circular form, tight at the hips and very wide at the hem, having gained in popularity. Plaits are stitched flat to aid in giving a slender effect. An untripped skirt is a rare sight.—New York Post.

The Japanese Cuisine.
The Japanese cuisine does not include butcher's meat, bread, butter and potatoes. Rice is not, as commonly supposed, the daily food of the poor, but can be afforded by the well to do only.

Tamarisk Timber.
Tamarisk timber 4,000 years old has been found in perfectly sound condition in ancient Egyptian temples.

Flow of the Thames.
The Thames flows at the rate of two miles an hour.

THINGS THEATRICAL.

In the five years that Miss Lillian Russell was a member of Weber & Fields' company she did not miss a single performance.

Ada Reece has accepted from Alfred Calmoun a new three act play entitled "The Morals of Connie." The piece is a comedy of art life.

Polly Emery, who appeared in America in "Three Little Maids," did not go to Australia with the organization, but arrived in London a few days ago.

Walter Hale, leading man of the Behan-Skinner company this season, sailed from Boston recently for a two months' sketching tour in Spain and the south of France.

William B. Gray, the author of "The Volunteer Organist," is at work on a new play called "The Evangelist," in which Florence Smythe will star. Miss Smythe is now in "The Volunteer Organist."

Productions were made recently at Rotterdam and Amsterdam of two English comedies in Dutch—"Cousin Kate" ("Nicht Kate"), Rotterdam, and "The Admirable Crichton," Amsterdam, under the title of "De Familie Robinson Crusoe."

Ancient Jewelers.

A corporation of jewelers was registered by Tiberius about A. D. 21. The jewelers were very much in demand in Rome on account of the number of rings worn by the women, who went about groaning under seven or eight pounds weight of gems.

HERE AT HOME.

Barre Citizens Gladly Testify.
It is testimony like the following that has placed "The old Quaker Remedy" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Barre citizen:

Mrs. John Bretsett, (John Bretsett, stone cutter), residence, Pleasant Street, near Fortney, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills, sold by E. A. Drown's drug store, did me more good than all the other remedies for the kidneys I ever used. For the results I obtained I most emphatically endorse the preparation. At different times for three or four years I suffered from acute backache and when that was not present there was a dull aching through my joints and kidneys, sometimes changing to sharp twinges, positively proving that in some way the action of these organs was disturbed. When in the acute stage twinges were sure to catch me if I stooped, and if I attempted to lift anything even light I was always rewarded with extra aggravated aches. In the morning I have often been so lame and sore across the small of my back that I could hardly get out of bed, and although I tried remedy after remedy advertised I received little if any benefit. A friend was so emphatic about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills that I took his advice and commenced the treatment. They helped me after a dose or two and when I completed the treatment of two boxes, the backache ceased, my kidneys were thoroughly cleansed and I was in better health than I had been for many a long day."
For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
